FIRST PEACE MOVE MADE BY ROOSEVELT

He Discusses the Situation With Count Cassini at White House.

Russians Want Nebogatoff Shot for Surrendering Ships to Japan.

Washington, June 3.—President Roosevelt has struck a blow for peace in the far east. In a conference at the White House yesterday afternoon with Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, the president expressed the earnest hope that Russia would forth with conclude peace with Japan. Pro- longation of the war, he believed will not result in victory for the Russian arms, and can only serve to increase Japan's demands and render more difficult the drafting of a treaty of peace which the Czar as well as the Mikado can sign.

The president spoke, he said, as the friend of Russia no less than at Japan, and on behalf not only of the Washington government, but in the interest of humanity. Until his words have reached Tsarskoe-Selo and have been communicated to Emperor Nicholas in the friendly spirit in which they were uttered, their effect cannot be estimated.

Thorough diplomatic courtesy there is a strong hope that today's conference marked the first step toward peace, but the ground being opened weeks may elapse before even preliminary negotiations can be begun.

Diplomats express the hope that Emperor Nicholas will receive the president's words "as the counsel of that government which has for years been Russia's traditional friend, and will weigh it accordingly."

Want Nebogatoff.

St. Petersburg, June 3.—Feeling in the admiralty against Rear Admiral Nebogatoff continues to run high, the majority of the naval authorities being deaf to the appeals of the few who insist that the admiral's actions in surrendering his warships should not be condemned until the circumstances become fully known. The majority say they could forgive anything but surrender, and point to the precedent set in the case of the Russian warship Hapshel, which in 1823, during the Russo-Turkish war, struck its colors to three Turkish ships which surrounded it.

Nicholas I. meted out a terrible punishment to the officers and crew of the Hapshel, ordering that all of them should be shot after their exchange and directing that if the ship should ever be recaptured its infamous history should be blotted out by the total destruction of the vessel.

The Hapshel, strange to say, was recaptured 34 years later, at Sinope, during the Crimean war, a son of the captain of the war who surrendered her taking part in the battle, and to this son fell the task of executing the dead emperor's orders to destroy her. Many naval authorities declare that the emperor should reserve the same fate for Admiral Nebogatoff.

Shot 300 Soldiers for Mutiny.

London, June 3.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Standard claims to have received confirmation of the report that the government suspects the temper of the troops in Manchuria and at home. According to private letters from Manchuria, General Linovitch recently had 25 officers and 300 men executed. The officers were shot and the men hanged. The officers were accused of distributing proclamations that were found in possession of the men.

Wounded Sailors Thrown Into Sea.

Tokio, June 3.—It is planned to bring the battleship Orel to Yokosuka, where the emperor will visit her. A remarkable story is in circulation concerning the wounded on the Orel. It is said that at the opening of the fight 300 men were killed and wounded, and that the groans and shrieks of the wounded exercised so harmful an effect that it was decided to throw the mortally wounded into the sea.

One hundred and forty, it is said, were thrown overboard. Those slightly wounded were then fastened to the mast to prevent their interference with the fighting of the ship.

It is impossible to obtain any confirmation of this story, but later reports indicate that the crew of the Orel fought with desperate bravery throughout the day previous to their surrender. The hull of the vessel is shell-marked, and many of her guns are smashed and dismantled.

Nebogatoff Thrown Overboard.

London, June 3.—A dispatch to the Times from St. Petersburg says that details received from a trustworthy source leave little doubt that Vice Admiral Nebogatoff's sailors mutilated and either threw him and his officers overboard or bound them in their cabins, after which a white flag was hoisted.

Two Hurt in Runaway.

Two were injured, one badly, in a runaway at Mayfield about 7 o'clock last evening. Newt Jeffrey, George Wade, Loch Hollinger and C. Crossland, four prominent young men of Mayfield, had been out on the edge of town hunting and were returning, all four seated in a small buggy. The horse ran away and one by one they jumped. All escaped except Hollinger and Wade. The former got a broken jaw and badly injured nose and the latter was badly lacerated about the body. The injuries are not fatal in either case, however.

Paducah Couple Married at Metropolis.

Miss Maud McGuire, daughter of K. H. McGuire of Harrison street and Mr. C. E. Zook went to Metropolis this morning and were married at the State hotel by Rev. J. L. Perryman of this city, who accompanied them. They returned on the Cowling today.

The following are the successful applicants for colored county teachers' certificates: Wentworth Gee, first class; Orville Morton and Tene Brown, second class; Daisy Johnson and Lorena Marable, third. There was one failure.

Attorney J. M. Worten Wins First Round in Tax Injunction Case.

Attorney J. M. Worten won first blood in his injunction suit against the city of Paducah to prevent the sale of certain property for back taxes claimed by the city for 1904, when Circuit Judge W. M. Reed this morning overruled the city's demurrer to the suit, thus sending the case over to the next term of court for a final hearing on its merits.

Attorney Worten, in his suit filed several months ago, claimed that the city's tax levy for 1904 was not valid because the supervisors were in session a month or longer when the charter limits them to two weeks, and further that the supervisors of the city tax books are authorized by law to make an assessment but once every four years, while in Paducah they are doing it every year, under the second-class charter.

The city filed a demurrer to the original petition, which was sustained, and the plaintiff was given leave to amend his petition, which he did.

The city demurred to this also, and this demurrer was today overruled.

The city will now have to file an answer and the case be regularly tried on its merits at the October term of court. If Attorney Worten should win his suit and it should be sustained by the court of appeals, every tax-payer in the city could sue and recover taxes paid for last year, and the levy for this year would likewise be illegal, hence the suit is of great importance to the community.

THE I. C. CARMEN GET GOOD CONTRACT

Papers Were all Signed up at Jackson, Tenn.

Supt. of Machinery Wm. Renshaw III and About 100 of His Assist- ants Were There.

CAR MEN GOT CONCESSIONS

Mr. Quincy Wallace, who went from Paducah as a representative of the local Brotherhood of Railway Carmen to meet Supt. of Machinery Wm. Renshaw III at Jackson, Tenn., and sign up a new contract for the coming year, has returned and reported that the rumor to the effect that no meeting was held is erroneous.

The meeting was held, but Mr. Renshaw was not present. He was ill and forbidden to leave his room for ten days by his physicians, but his assistant, Mr. Joseph Barker, did meet the committee and signed up a satisfactory scale in every respect. "We got everything we asked for except a general raise," Mr. Wallace stated. "In a few places of isolation where carmen were making very little, from 11 to 13 cents an hour, they were given a raise to the regular scale which ranged from 15 to 22 1-2 cents an hour. We also got assurance that we would be protected in our work by locked switches. You see on switch tracks cars are run in for repairs and in some instances members of our order have been killed and injured by cars being backed in while they were at work. The officials assured us that the rules would be changed and all switches required to be locked while we were working a switch track."

"The official also assured us that sheds would be built in places where carmen have to work out in the weather. This may mean a shed over the jacking track in Paducah, but it is yet undecided. We got a good contract and I think everyone was satisfied."

There were sixteen representatives from every brotherhood on the system excepting Harborside shops, which belongs to another order.

KILLED BY HORSE

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR JAIL- ER OF BALLARD FATALLY HURT.

Train Frightened His Horse and He Was Thrown Off and Run Over by the Horse.

Mr. J. A. Townsend, of Barlow, democratic nominee for jailer of Ballard county, was run over and fatally injured last Tuesday by a horse. Mr. Townsend was riding a mule and leading a horse to Barlow. Just before getting to Barlow from the north on the public road there is a trestle of the Cairo Paducah branch of the I. C. under which the traveler had to pass. At this point when he arrived there a train was passing and his horse became frightened and jerked him from the mule he was riding to the ground and ran over his prostrate form, stepping upon Mr. Townsend's chest with his feet as he ran by. The injured man was taken to Barlow and medical assistance summoned, but he did not live long.

The remains were interred Thursday at Old Hazelwood cemetery under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity.

Carric Nation Disciple Fined.

Arkansas City, Kan., June 3.—Myra McHenry, a follower of Carrie Nation, was fined $100 for contempt by Police Judge Fleming, before whom she appeared on a charge of disturbing the peace of a barber in whose place she had been arrested. She could not furnish bond and was ordered sent to jail. Before she left the court room she dared Judge Fleming to fine her for contempt, which he did. She still abused him and he increased the fine to a total of $100.

Buy a woman everything she wants and she will be satisfied with promises of things she doesn't want.

HANLON WON. Awarded the Decision Over Young Corbett.

San Francisco, June 3.—Eddie Hanlon fought Young Corbett to a standstill during the last few rounds of a twenty round contest last night and was awarded a hard-earned decision. The fight was exciting from start to finish. During the first part of the contest Hanlon had a slight advantage, but no harm was done either man until the eleventh round. Then Hanlon rushed Corbett to the ropes, but the Denver man stalled him off and blocked a number of stomach punches. Corbett got to the center of the ring and in a unique landed left and right swings on Hanlon's jaw. The San Francisco boy went to his knees and took the count of nine. He came up fighting and in spite of Corbett's strenuous efforts to put him out finished the round strong.

Fought a Draw.

Baltimore, June 3.—Battling Nelson of Chicago, and Kid Sullivan, of Washington, fought six fast rounds to a draw.

Over 100 Stitches Taken in One Man.

Murphysboro, Ill., June 3.—Walter McBride, a former railroad man, was placed in the hospital here suffering with numerous injuries. He was run over by a train in Herrin Monday night. His right leg and right arm were cut off, his left arm was badly mangled, a large gash was cut, extending from his forehead to the back of his head, and he received other injuries. The physicians consider it a miracle that he is still alive. Over 100 stitches were required to close the gashes over his body.

HARTH WAREHOUSE DAMAGED BY FIRE

$12,000 Conflagration at 7th and Norton Streets.

The Insurance Makes the Net Loss to the Owners About $2,500.

INCENDIARISM IS SUSPECTED

No. 2 warehouse of the Harth Bros. Grain Co., at Seventh and Norton streets, on the N. C. and St. L. road, burned last night with a net loss of about $2,500. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin as no fire had been left about the place and the lateness of the hour supports the theory.

The fire was discovered at 11:30 o'clock and several alarms were sent in. The Nos. 2 and 4 fire departments responded and found the warehouse a mass of flames, the biggest conflagration being in the rear of the building where a lot of baled hay was stored. Several streams of water were worked on the building, which has a tin roof, and after two hours' work the blaze was extinguished, but until a total damage of $12,000 had been done to the building and stock.

The proprietors have insurance amounting to $9,500, as follows: Continental, $2,500; Germania, $2,500; North American, $500; Rochester German, $2,000 and Connecticut, $2,000.

The firm has a corn shelling mill at Eighth and Norton streets but this was in no danger from the flames. The baled hay, being highly inflammable, made the fire a hard one to fight but the fire departments did excellent work.

The fire was discovered by Officers Slagery and Churchill who are working on the depot beat. They thought it was trash at the Alden Kitting Mills Co. employees often burning trash at night, but Officer Churchill went down to investigate and saw it was the Harth warehouse.

CHOPPED OFF WIFE'S HEAD.

And Then Blew His Brains Out With a Shotgun.

Warrensburg, Mo., June 3.—Last evening Harvey Andrews, a farmer living near here, murdered his wife by chopping her head to pieces with a hedge knife, and then blew out his own brains with a shotgun. The young daughter says her parents had been quarreling during the day.

INTERESTING LIFE OF MRS. FAUNTLEROY

Lovable Character Dies at the Ripe Old Age of 84.

Had Been Ill Only a Short Time— Her Husband's Mother a Sweet- heart of Two, Washington.

MRS. THOS. POTTER'S FUNERAL.

Mrs. Ann Matilda Fauntleroy, aged 84, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Henry Smith, Fifth and Harrison streets, at 3:30 o'clock yesterday from old age. While Mrs. Fauntleroy was quite old, she had always been unusually bright and active, and was apparently in good health until a few days ago, when she suddenly became ill, took to her bed and rapidly weakened.

Mrs. Fauntleroy was a most interesting personage. She was born near Louisville, in Jefferson county, but moved to Frederick county, Virginia, early in life. She and her parents then returned to Kentucky and lived in Jessamine county, and afterwards moved to Clarksville, Tenn., where Mrs. Fauntleroy, who was then Miss Bowman, was married to Butler Fauntleroy, who preceded her to the grave in 1874.

The deceased had for a number of years made her home with her daughter here, and was greatly beloved by all who knew her. She was a woman of bright faculties to the last, and told many interesting stories of olden times, one of which was how George Washington once proposed to Mrs. Elizabeth Fauntleroy, mother of her husband. The incident figures in one of Miss Matilda Ermine Rives' books.

Mrs. Fauntleroy was a Christian woman of many virtues, and her death will cause much genuine sorrow and regret wherever she is known.

She leaves three children, Mrs. J. H. Smith, of the city; Mrs. Florence Stevens, of Paragould, Ark., and Mr. Thomas Fauntleroy, of Ceredo, this county. A daughter, Mrs. Lantz Stevens, of Lovelaceville, died several years ago. Her surviving sisters are Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of St. Elmo, Ky.; Mrs. Eleanor Woodward, of Gatesville, Tex.; Mrs. G. H. Slaughter, of Bethlehem, Tenn., and Mrs. Sallie Jones, of San Antonio, Texas. She leaves eleven grandchildren, and many great-grandchildren.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the residence, services by Rev. W. H. Plunkerton, of the First Christian church, interment at Oak Grove.

The pallbearers will be: W. H. Holland, J. K. Bondurant, J. H. Burnett, J. W. Hart, C. R. Hall and A. S. Dabney.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Eunice Potter, wife of Officer Tom Potter, took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence, Rev. T. J. Nowell, of the Broadway Methodist church, officiating. The pallbearers were Messrs. Emil Gourieux, Gus Rogers, James Crow, James Sleeth, E. C. Carter and Mann Clark. The burial was at Oak Grove.

The 3-months-old daughter of Special Policeman Dick Tolbert and wife, died yesterday at their home, 1742 Harrison street, after a short illness of colic.

Miss Inez Q. Jones died at her home in Melber, this county yesterday after a several weeks' illness from typhoid fever. The deceased was twenty years of age and the daughter of Mr. Q. H. Jones. The remains were buried today at the Allcock cemetery.

POSTOFFICE ROBBER.

Thieves Cleaned Up $300 at Bar- dwell.

Bardwell, Ky., June 3.—The post-office at this place was broken into Thursday night and rifled of all the money and stamps on hand. The safe was literally blown to pieces. The robbers secured $125 in cash and $225 worth of stamps. Postmaster Witty at once notified the postoffice authorities and a representative from that department is expected. The furniture in the postoffice was badly wrecked by the explosive used.

It is a case of intellectual farming when a man's feelings are harrowed.

BRILLIANT YOUNG MAN.

W. L. Allen, Formerly of the Louis- ville Times, Dies in New York.

Louisville, Ky., June 3.—William L. Allen, formerly of the Louisville Times, died yesterday at Saranac Lake, N. Y.

For sometime the fatal end had been expected and Thursday came a wife to the family announcing that the crisis was fast approaching and bidding the patient's brother, Dr. George Allen, to make haste to Saranac Lake. Dr. Allen left by the first train.

Several weeks ago it became apparent that Mr. Allen was losing ground. For three years and more he had bravely and patiently battled against the dread disease, consumption. But the fates were cruelly against him and only the inevitable has happened.

The body will be brought to Louisville and the Elks, of which Mr. Allen was one of the most prominent members, will assist in the obsequies. In the passing of Will Allen one of the brightest of Louisville newspaper men has been lost. There was no department in journalism which he had not adorned. And in many other capacities he was brilliantly gifted.

RIVER CONFERENCE.

Will Be Held in Cincinnati June 20 and 30.

Cincinnati, O., June 3.—June 29 and 30 has been fixed as the date for the conference in this city of representatives of river and harbor interests throughout the country to arrange plans and a program for the National Waterways' convention to be held in Washington shortly after congress convenes this fall. Secretary J. E. Ellison, of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association, which is taking the initiative in the movement for the convention, today sent out invitations to the preliminary conference in which it is emphasized that the purpose of the proposed convention is solely to urge congress to make larger appropriations for all river and harbor improvements, and that it will be similar to the Baltimore convention of 1901 which brought forth a sixty million dollar river and harbor bill at the next congress. Secretary Ellison says the conference here will be largely attended.

WAR CLAIMS

TO BE FILED FOR RESIDENTS OF THIS COUNTY.

About Three Thousand Six Hundred Dollars Due for Money Paid Out for Illegal Drafts.

Attorneys Bagby and Martin are preparing to file claims against the United States government for something in the neighborhood of $3,600 for "drafts" made during the Civil war, all for people residing in McCracken county.

Under a recent act of congress persons who were drafted into the army during the Civil war by the government, can reclaim the money paid for release, and the Paducah attorneys have secured authority to go ahead and collect for about a dozen persons. The amount of money generally paid for a draft release was $300 and all clients have receipts for the amounts they paid. The attorneys are waiting on papers from Washington and as soon as they arrive will file claims.

Girl Loses Herself on Ball Game.

Okolona, Miss., June 3.—It is not every day that a girl is bet on a baseball game, but it happened here the other day that Miss Beatrice Jamison bet herself against nothing at all that the Okolona team would be defeated by the Houston team. This unique bet Miss Jamison lost, and, with rare gameness, she paid it. Immediately marrying Joe S. Williams, the winner of the wager, Miss Jamison is the daughter of Col. A. J. Jamison, postmaster of Houston. In spite of the bet, Mr. Williams is still an enthusiastic rooter for the Okolona team, and Mrs. Williams is still loyal to Houston.

Rural Delivery Headquarters.

Washington, June 3.—An order transferring rural delivery division headquarters for Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana from Cincinnati to Indianapolis was issued today to take effect July 1.

ANOTHER STORM VISITS SNYDER

This Time It Was a Flood In- stead of Cyclone.

Many People Have Narrow Escape and Were Left Without Shelter by the Inundation.

BATTLESHIPS STRUCK BY STORM

Snyder, Okla., June 3.—This place was again visited by a severe storm which came in the nature of a cloudburst and inundated the town.

Women and children were rescued in wagons and taken to places of safety. Many who lost their homes in the recent cyclones were without shelter again last night. The community building was badly wrecked and the supplies damaged.

Sail Boating to Homewoods.

Ashtabula, Ohio, June 3.—Roy Hayward, a Lakeshore fireman and Miss Ellen Beach, were married last week and returned from their trip Thursday, the bride sick of typhoid fever. Friday night Hayward went out on his run and was killed in a collision at Youngstown. Several other trainmen were badly injured.

Battleships in a Storm.

Norfolk, June 3.—While coming up the coast from the southern drill grounds, the battleship squadron under Admiral Evans encountered a severe storm, and compelled to anchor off Cape Henry. During the storm the anchors of the Missouri and Kentucky parted.

Lunatic Behaved.

Columbus, Ohio, June 3.—Elizabeth Honefanger, convalescing in the Mate Hospital for the insane, laid her head across a rail in front of a Panhandle train this morning and her head was severed.

THE WEEK'S NEWS IN THE COMMERCIAL WORLD.

Clearings this week, $543,382. Same week last year, $600,476. Local wholesale houses report a good tone to trade with collections fair. Manufacturers, with the exceptions of those with whom it is off season, report much activity and indications for the future very good.

Building trades are very busy, the number of new houses going up all around the city and the new improvements are remarkable.

The real estate market has been very active all spring, and probably, there were never greater demands for property for improvement and investment than there has been this year. Property in certain parts of the city has increased in value 50 per cent. in the past eighteen months, and all city and suburban property is increasing in value rapidly.

Major Ashcraft Better.

Major J. H. Ashcraft, who left this week for the Shiloh battlefield, of which he is one of the commissioners, did not feel equal to the journey and returned home by the next boat. Major Ashcraft had been quite ill, but is now much better and thought the change might benefit him. He was accompanied by Mrs. Ashcraft.

Hits Were Scattered.
Hopkinsville, June 3.—Notwithstanding that the Indians outthrew

Nut Students two to one yesterday, they lost the game to them, making one out of the three for the local bunch. Paducah was in the box for the Students and his pitching was attended with all sorts of luck, for, allowing ten hits as he did, they resulted in but two runs, while the five which were scored off South let four men cross the rubber. Schan caught the first part of the game for the locals, but was taken out and the remaining innings finished by Rutledge.

Calro Wins at Last.
Vincennes, June 3.—The third and last game of the series went to the Mud Wallpapers yesterday after a bitterly fought battle, the outcome of which was a matter of conjecture up till the time when the last ball was delivered over the plate.

Witt and Eckstone, both formerly on the Calro team, were in the box against each other. For the Alice men Witt pitched an elegant game, and outclassed Eckstone for Calro, but two hits and a sacrifice in the fourth ruined the game so far as his team was concerned. Eckstone was Easy For Princeton.

Princeton, Ky., June 3.—For the third successive time the Infants yesterday defeated the Hens in one of the best fought battles of the series. Swain put them over for the Children, and did one of the best jobs of the season so far as he is concerned letting the visitors down with but three hits. Asher allowed only six safe ones, but they were well bunched and resulted in bringing over the rubber a sufficient number of runs to carry off the game. Score:

Henderson	3	3	2
Princeton	4	6	1
Batteries	Asher and Schissel; Swain and Wagner.

And still the struggle for supremacy between the Indians and Kolthe continues. Seemingly though they are fated to win and lose on the same day. They'll have to break away pretty soon for they can't both win the pennant. * * * The howl from the fans in Paducah to the effect that South should be benched until he shows some evidence in some way or another of having become seasoned enough to win one of his games received a fresh impetus yesterday. It will now be heard clear to the sun and it will more than likely hear some fruit.—Calro Tulletin.

A feature of the game yesterday was a scrap between Taylor, centerfielder, and Perry, short stop, of the Paducah team. The first indication of the trouble was, when taking the field about the sixth inning, Taylor passed Perry and said something to him. Perry answered hotly and started, with hostile demonstrations, for the centerfielder, but changed his mind and came back to his position. The bleacherites took up the matter and for the rest of the game had a good time gazing the belligerents. The trouble ended with this display of temper.—Hopkinsville New Era.

Yesterday seems to have been "tail enders' day." Well it was time.

The Henderson Glenner thinks Morgan did better work than Wiley Platt in the Decoration Day games, because he struck out more men. Strike-out pitchers are not very highly regarded these days. Look how Freeman used to do. Strike out from ten to fifteen or twenty men and then lose the game.

It is said that Gilligan did the best hitting of the trip, but they all did some.

J. P. McNamara has been signed by Calro for center fielder. Duncan, outfielder, and DeWesse, catcher, have been released by Henderson.

There isn't any better ball being played anywhere than right here in our own Kity league. Everybody should go out and show appreciation of it.

Harney Dreyfus is having his troubles. He recently preferred charges against Manager McGraw, of New York Nationals, and McGraw was suspended for fifteen days and fined $100. He was also charged with misconduct, etc., but the board of directors Thursday exonerated him on the charge, and is alleged to have censured him for making the charges. Huns Wagner, short stop for Pittsburg, has been fined $30 and suspended for disputing the decision of the umpire. In the big leagues "back talk" to the umpire usually causes a team to be crippled up some. With Wagner out Pittsburg will be handicapped for several games.

Even if the tail-enders of the Kity league are not ahead they are all playing good ball, and somebody has to be on bottom.

Platt Praised by Hunsie.

The Vincennes Capital says: Amos Hunsie, who was the king of all twirlers in his day, and is yet rated as the man who has displayed the most speed in the national sport, was one of the spectators in yesterday's game. It being his first visit to the park this season. The big fellow on decoration day observed his 34th birthday, and said at the game yesterday that he had decided to take an afternoon off and see his first game in a year. Hunsie is employed at the McElvaine lumber yards and is a favorite among the employees. In speaking of Wiley Platt, who is making a wonderful pitching record in the Kity, Hunsie stated that he remembered Wiley when he first went into the big league with Philadelphia. "He was nothing but a boy at that time," said Hunsie, "but after the first game that I saw him pitch I predicted that he had a bright future before him."

Amateur Games.

The Famous baseball team will go to Metropolis tomorrow to play the team of that place. The battery for the Famous team will be Douglas and Hayes.

The L. A. L. team will go to Princeton tomorrow to play the team of that city. The battery for the L. A. club will be Schissel and Andreoli.

The L. C. Centrals will have no game tomorrow on account of a misunderstanding among the team members.

Mr. Albert Winfrey was managing the team but a dispute arose and he resigned. Fred Flannigan took charge but some of the members refused to play under his management, and it is said matters will be patched up and Winfrey secured to manage the Centrals again. This is one of the strongest amateur teams in the city and the fans will hope the muss will be patched up.

The Indians' Triumphant Return.
The Paducah baseball team, with a good record on its circuit trip, returned to Paducah this morning at 9:30 o'clock, all members feeling fine and dandy.

The Indians certainly cut a swath through the league and took almost everything in sight. The only stumbling block was Princeton, where only one game out of three was taken.

The record is as follows:
Princeton, one out of three; Vincennes, two out of three; Henderson, three out of four; Hopkinsville, two out of three. This makes a total of eleven out of sixteen games, an enviable record.

The hitting done by the Indians was well apportioned. No one was injured and the team states that the umpiring was generally good.

This was the first trip out for the Indians and out of the five circuit parks Vincennes is said to have the best. The infield at Princeton is said to be the worst and the outfield at Hopkinsville the worst.

At Hopkinsville a street fair is going on and the boys had a good time during the three days' stay. Today they rest and tomorrow the

JUNE.

The birds are singing in the trees—
Why shouldn't they? They take their ease.

They loaf about the woods all day,
And haven't any rent to pay.

The flowers bloom and gayly bow—
Why shouldn't they? Who'd make a row

If down below they and a root
Preparing food and drink to suit?

The trees are rustling all their leaves—
Why shouldn't they? Who is there grieves

When neatly dresses from top to toe—
And not a cent to pay or owe?

All Nature finds the world at ease—
Why shouldn't she? The month is June.

The grass is green, the sky is blue,
How very true that is, though true!

Mr. Leslie La Nieve to Marry at Rives.

The marriage of Mr. H. Leslie La Nieve, of Rives, Tenn., to Miss Nelle Clemens, of Rives, is announced to take place on June 21 at 8:30 o'clock a. m. at that place. Mr. La Nieve is well known in Paducah, where he lived several years, and news of the marriage will come as a pleasant surprise to his many friends here.

Mr. La Nieve is the son of Mrs. H. H. La Nieve of North Seventh St., this city, and was formerly night yardmaster for the I. C. here and later entered the shoe business, being employed in the Shaw shoe factory here. He was sent to Rives, Tenn., to manage the Hollingshead Slack Harrell Slave factory and is at present employed in that capacity. He is an energetic and popular young man of much promise and has countless friends here to extend congratulations.

Miss Clemens is the daughter of Mrs. Porter Clemens, of Rives, and one of the most attractive and popular young ladies in Western Tennessee. After the ceremony the couple will leave for Virginia Beach to spend their honeymoon.

Davis' Birthday Celebration.

The James T. Walbert camp of Confederate Veterans and the Paducah chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, assisted by the Alexander Faris chapter, Children of the Confederacy, will celebrate the birthday of Jefferson Davis, with appropriate ceremonies tonight at the county court house. A very attractive program has been arranged consisting of musical selection, and readings by Mrs. Flora Mae Clark Young and Miss Frances Tempest Herndon. Mr. Robert Scott will sing. The address will be made by Hon. Henry George, of Wings. A pretty feature of the evening will be the presentation of crosses of honor by the Daughters of the Confederacy to a number of veterans.

It will be of interest to know that Mrs. Young will give her reading "A War Incident in the Life of Gen. John C. Underwood, of Kentucky." Gen. Underwood once told this to Mrs. Young's sister, Miss Eugenie Clarke, the talented writer, and she wove it into an attractive story that will be given by Mrs. Young very effectively this evening.

Class Entertainment En Series.

A series of pleasant events for the coming week will be the entertainments given by the Freshman, Sophomore and Junior classes of the Paducah high school in lieu of the usual commencement exercises. On Monday evening at 8 o'clock the Freshman class will give a reception and musical. An attractive little musical and literary program will be rendered informally by the class and light refreshments will be served.

The Sophomore class will entertain their friends on Tuesday evening from 8 to 11 with a reception that will be quite an elaborate function.

On Wednesday evening the Dramatic club of the Junior class will give a clever presentation of "The Arabian Nights" for their "at home" evening.

Washington was hostess at a pretty afternoon card party on Wednesday at her home on West Broadway, in compliment to Miss Meme Smith, of Owensboro, Ky., the attractive guest of Miss Caroline Sowell. The visitor's prize was won by Miss Smith. Mrs. Robert Reeves captured the first prize, and the honor prize went to Mrs. John Campbell. The bride will wear a pretty traveling gown of blue with hat to match. No invitations have been issued in the city.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple will go to Chicago to visit Mrs. W. N. Robins, an aunt of the bride, and will also visit relatives of the groom in Lafayette, Ind. On their return they will be at the Richardson home, on South Third street, for several weeks before going to housekeeping.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Swope, of 510 Washington street, issued invitations this week to the wedding reception of their daughter, Henrietta, and Mr. Marcus Solomon, at their home on Wednesday evening, June 14, from 8 until 10 o'clock. The betrothal of the couple was announced several months ago.

IS THERE BOODLING IN KENTUCKY?

The contest for the Democratic nomination for state senator in the Third district, composed of Calloway, Trigg, Livingston and Lyon counties has no particular interest here, except that it is exposing some of the rottenness of the Democratic party. J. W. Oliver, a minister of Kuttawa who is a candidate, claims that an attempt has been made to bribe him to withdraw by offering him the office of chaplain of the Eddyville penitentiary, paying $1200 a year. He supports it by the affidavit of his wife, a neighbor present at his house at the time the bribe is alleged to have been offered, and the man who drove the alleged would-be briber over from Eddyville to Kuttawa.

According to the affidavits, a man claiming to represent one of the big packing companies—Swift & Co.—called at Rev. Oliver's house and finding the minister absent, explained to Mrs. Oliver that he understood he, Oliver, didn't expect to be nominated, but wanted to be chaplain of the Eddyville penitentiary. He said he was authorized to offer him the office to withdraw.

Rev. Oliver, in a card to the Lyon County Times, says:
"I...ask the people to read and consider well before they vote against me for a man in whose interest this visit and this offer was made. I am a poor man, reared in Lyon county, but I defy Political Bribers, Beef Trust Agents and Midnight Villains of the ilk of Chiles. As Chiles made no apology for his late presence at my house, bearing the bribing offer of a $1200 office, I shall offer no apology for introducing the affidavit of my wife and Mrs. Tumlin, who was present and heard all that was said on that occasion; also the affidavit of Newt J. Dobbin who drove the said Chiles over to Kuttawa from Eddyville about 9 o'clock at night."

The questions that naturally suggest themselves are, what is the state Democratic machine up to, that it offers, through a representative of one of the "trusts" a $1200 office to a man to get out of the way of another who wants to go to the legislature and help make our laws? What sort of deal are they going to give the people through the legislature? What has any of the "trusts" done that is any of them going to do, to justify the Democratic machine in giving it to peddle $1200 offices? The trick is being turned in the Third district, is it not reasonable to assume that the same influences are at work among the Democrats in other parts of the state?

Rev. Oliver has no doubt forever sacrificed his own political chances by the exposure, for the machine will attend to him from this on, but he has "started something." The affair may be hushed up as others have been, but if there are any honest Democrats left who are interested in the welfare of the state, they should do a little investigating and find out who is trying to pack the next legislature and why it is sought to be done.

Is Kentucky going to allow itself to be added to the list of states where boodling has become so brazen that nothing short of a great upheaval and public scandal will stop it?
Hinkleville Road Lots.
On Sunday take a walk or drive on the Hinkleville road and see the new addition just west of Oak Grove, streets and alleys are being graded, water mains laid and stone sidewalks made without expense to the purchaser. A $3500 brick building to be erected. All lots fronting on the Hinkleville road $300 each. All corners $300 each and inside lots $250 each, and on the very easy terms of $25 cash, balance $10 every three months. Easy way to save money and no risk in buying one or more of these lots.

SIR HENRY MORGAN, BUCCANEER

By CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY,

Author of "The Southerners," "For Love of Country," "The Grip of Honor," Etc.

COPYRIGHT, 1905, BY G. W. DILLINGHAM COMPANY

As far as creature comforts were concerned, the two women fared well. Indeed, they were luxuriously, lavishly, prodigally provided for. Senora Aguilera was still in a state of complete prostration. She lay helpless on a couch in the apartment, and ministering to her distracted the poor girl's mind, yet such a day as Mercedes' life passed she prayed she might never again experience. The town was filled with the shouts and cries of the buccaneers wandering in and fro, singing drunken choruses, now and again routing out hidden fugitives from shadows of fancied security and torturing them with ready ingenuity whenever they were taken. The confusion was increased and the noise diversified by the shrieks and groans of these unfortunate wretches. Sometimes the voices that came through the high windows were those of women, and the sound of their screams made the heart of the brave girl sink like lead in her breast.

For the first, she did not understand Hornigold's position. She did not know whether to believe him or not, but of one thing was she certain—whereas she had been defenseless, now she had a weapon, and she could use it if necessary. With that in hand she was mistress at least of her own fate.

As evening drew on, everything having been attended to, Morgan began to tire of his isolation, and thus long heavy on his hands. He was weary of the women whom he had hitherto courted with. The other officers, between whom and himself there was no sort of friendship, were busy with their own nefarious wickednesses in the different parts of the fort or town, and he sat a long time alone in the guard room drinking. Black Dog, as usual, poured at his side. The liquor inflamed his imagination, and he craved companionship. Summoning Hornigold at last, he bade him bring Donna Mercedes before him. The old man attempted to expostulate, but Morgan's mood had changed, and he brooked no hesitation in obeying any order given by him. There was nothing for the lieutenant to do but to comply.

Once more Mercedes, therefore, found herself in the guardroom of the fort in the presence of the man she loathed and feared above all others in creation. She glanced at the clock, a recent importation from Spain, hanging upon the wall, as she entered and saw that it was half after six. Then was the hour Hornigold had appointed to meet Alvaro at the gate. She hoped that he would be early rather than late, and, if she could withstand the temptation by persuasion, seeming compliance or by force for a short space, all would be well, for she never doubted that her lover would come for her. Even if he had to come single handed and alone to fight for her, she knew he would be there. Therefore, with every nerve strained almost to the breaking point to wait off his advances and to delay any action he might contemplate, she faced the lieutenant.

He was dressed with barbaric magnificence in the richest and plunder he had appropriated, and he had adorned his person with a profusion of silver and gold and stolen gems. He had been seated at the table while served by the maids; but, as she entered, with unusual complaisance he arose and bowed to her with something of the grace of a gentleman.

"Madam," he said, endeavoring to make soft and agreeable his harsh voice, "I trust you have been well treated since in my charge."

He had been drinking heavily, she saw, but as he spoke her fair skin would answer him accordingly. On his part he had determined to try the gentler arts of persuasion, and, though his face with bore the welts made by her cutting whip the night before, he strove to forget it and play the gentleman. She answered his question calmly without exhibiting resentment or annoyance.

"We have been comfortably lodged and provided with food and drink in sufficient amount."

"And what more would you have, Donna Mercedes?"

"Liberty, sir."

"That shall be yours. Saving only my will when you are married to me, you shall be as free as air—a free soul and as free wife, lady. But will you not all down?"

In compliance with his request, she seated herself on a chair which happened to be near where she stood. She noted with relief that the table was between them.

"Say, not there," said the captain instantly. "Here, madam; here at my side."

"Not yet, Senor Captain. It were not fit that a prisoner should occupy so high a seat of honor. Wait until—"

"Until you are Lady Morgan?" he cried, his face flaming.

She buried her face in her hands at his suggestion, for she feared her horror in the thought would show too plainly there, and then, because she dare not lose sight of him, she constrained herself to look at him once more. Her cheeks were burning with shame, her eyes flashing with indignation, though she forced her lips into the compliance of a smile.

"That surprises you, does it?" continued the man, with boasting candor. "You did not think I designed so to honor you after last night, madam? Scuttle me, those—" pointing to his face—"sure these love lines, but I like you none the less for your spirit. You are silent," he continued, staring at her with red eyes, drunken suspicion. "You do not answer."

"My lord," cried Mercedes, "I know not what to say."

"Say 'Harry Morgan, I love you, and I am yours.'"

"There is another present, senor."

"Where? Another? Who has dared?" roared the lieutenant, glaring about him.

"Thy servant, the negro."

"Oh," he laughed, "he is nothing. Black Dog we call him. He is my slave, my shadow, my protection. He is always by."

An alien had swiftly flashed into the young girl's mind. If she could get rid of the slave she could deal more easily with the master. She was tall, strong, and Morgan, it appeared, was not in full possession of his faculties or his strength from the liquor he had imbibed.

"Still," she urged, "I do not like to be wooed in the presence of another, even though he be a slave. 'Tis not a Spanish maiden's way, sir."

"Your will now, lady," said the lieutenant, with a hidden attempt at gallantry. "Is my law. Afterward—'twill be another matter. Out, Carib, but be within call. Now, madam, we are alone. Speak you the English tongue?"

A Wife's Health

How many homes contain wives with broken health, feeble constitution, shattered nerves, physical wrecks of their former selves, and how bitter the disappointment to both husband and wife to experience such a state of affairs instead of enjoying the happiness and contentment of the ideal home. The cause of this gloomy contrast is usually traced to those so often impalpable and complaints known as female diseases, those peculiar weaknesses in the organs of generation so common to women.

MAGNOLIA BLOSSOM

Women's Favorite Remedy. Strengthen these delicate organs and give women perfect health, and if given a fair trial it restores freedom from all troubles, failing of the womb, painful periods and all other weaknesses peculiar to women. It is a simple home treatment that enables women to treat themselves and effects a cure without taking strong drugs and poisoning the system, which is a sure way to ruin digestion.

Ask your druggist for MAGNOLIA BLOSSOM, one dollar for a box containing one month's treatment. Write to the SOUTHERN REMEDY CO., South Bend, Ind., their book entitled "A Book for Women," sent free to any address. Letters requiring medical advice referred to our lady physicians and treated with strict confidence.

Sold by W. H. McPherson, Druggist, Fourth and Broadway.

The conversation had in Spanish heretofore. "Indifferently, senor." "Well, I'll teach it you. The lesson may as well begin now. Say after me 'Harry'—I permit that, though I am a belted knight of England, made so by his merry majesty King Charles. God rest him. Drink to the repose of the king!" he cried, shading a cup across the table toward her.

Resisting a powerful temptation to throw it at him and divining that the stimulant might be of assistance to her in the trying crisis in which she found herself, the girl lifted the cup to her lips, bowed to him and swallowed a portion of the contents.

"Give it back to me!" he shouted. "You have tasted it; I drain it. Now the lesson. Say after me, 'Harry Morgan.'"

"Harry Morgan," gasped the girl. "I love thee."

With a swift inward prayer she uttered the lying words.

"You have learned well and art an adept," he cried. "I'll know there are few women who can resist me when I try to be agreeable? Harry Morgan's way!" he laughed again.

HOT SHOT FROM A BENTON NEWSPAPER

Says Things About Paducah Police That are Not True.

Board of Health to Hold a Meeting Monday Night to Take Up Sanitation Question.

SOME OTHER CITY NOTES

Mayor D. A. Yeiser has received a marked copy of this week's Benton Tribune-Democrat, printed at Benton, Marshall county, "roasting" a couple of Paducah saloon-keepers for bringing a lot of "pale ale" there last Sunday, and selling it at a lemonade stand they had put up ostensibly for other kind of refreshments.

The Tribune-Democrat adds: "They were promptly arrested by our special policemen and carried before the police judge, where they both plead guilty and fined in one case each and let go on promise of not selling any more. The worst feature connected with this outrage on decency is the fact that these parties were accompanied and assisted by a Paducah policeman, wearing a badge numbered 35. We understand that his name is Schwink, but we are not certain as to his name.

"When he got wind that a warrant was going to be issued for the parties running this dive he skipped out and could not be found. It is reported that he took the first train south and got off at Hardin or some other point and then took the late train into Paducah. This stand was erected on the sidewalk right on the public square. It certainly was one of the boldest outrages ever attempted in a civilized community."

The Tribune-Democrat goes on to "roast" the whole Paducah police force for the act of this alleged policeman from Paducah, indicating that it knew nothing of the facts.

Mayor Yeiser states that the man referred to is not a policeman, and if he had on a badge, had no right to. He served as an extra officer a few days during the carnival, but this is about the only service he ever saw on the force. Mayor Yeiser says the police officers all stay at home and attend to business, and that the Benton paper does them a great injustice.

It is stated that the man will not again serve as an extra officer.

Dr. J. W. Pendley, president of the board of health, stated this morning that he would call a meeting of the board of health Monday night for the purpose of looking into the work of sanitary inspectors and the general cleaning up of the city.

Dr. Pendley will request the mayor, city engineer and street inspector to be present and will take up the matter of municipal cleaning with them. The city officials can, by co-operation, Dr. Pendley thinks, aid materially in bettering the sanitary condition of the city by reporting everything they see, and instructing their subordinates to do likewise. Dr. Pendley states that the board is anxious to do the work expected of it and make a record for itself.

City Engineer L. A. Washington stated this morning that he had not secured an assistant yet, but would hear in a few days from several engineers to whom he has written.

"You see all good men have positions, and it is hard to secure a competent man," Engineer Washington explained. "I want a man I can put on a street and will not have to watch; a man I can feel confident will do the work right. If I had to oversee another's work, I might as well do it myself, so you can see why I am trying to secure a competent engineer."

Engineer Washington is working hard on Third street and has run his levels and lines over half way.

The legislative boards meet in regular session Monday and Tuesday night with three weeks' business to dispose of. As there were more Mondays than usual in May, it has been three weeks since the regular meetings of the boards were held. They meet twice a month, in the first and third Mondays and Thursdays. Most of the work before the boards will be routine.

A petition of remonstrance is to be presented to the council Monday night, it is understood, against the issuance of a saloon license at 8th and Ohio streets. There will also be a protest against a saloon proposed to be opened on Clements street.

A number of people are talking of removing their fences after the mayor signs the cow ordinance next week. This is a matter, however, in which they should make haste slowly, as it is not yet certain how well the cow ordinance will be enforced after it has become a law.

The work on South Third street continues to be pushed by Contractor Bridges and excavations are now being made for the big surface water manholes at Third and Kentucky, which will mark the point where the rainwater from Third street is drained into the storm water sewerage on Kentucky avenue.

Mayor Yeiser is at work trying to get as much property as possible dedicated to the city for the streets asked recently by the people of Mechanicsburg. Petitions were presented before the board of works which acted on them favorably, and the council is expected to take them up Monday night at its regular meeting. If the cost is not too great to the city it is likely both boards will pass the ordinances for the new streets, one of which is to connect the Fishersville locality with other parts of the city and the other to open a way to the new Mechanicsburg school.

Banquet For Paducah.

Our old friend Louis Kolb, of Paducah, was in town last Monday buying some fat cattle in this vicinity for his extensive butcher business in the city. Mr. Kolb is a good man to sell stock to, as you are sure to get honest weights and full price. He is also a member of the city council of Paducah, and is standing by Mayor Yeiser in his fight for law and order.—Benton Tribune.

Occasionally a man worries because he can't meet his obligations, but more often he worries because he is unable to dodge them.
